"The Professional Photographers of West Virginia Association is one of the most valuable tools the photographers in West Virginia have available to them. My involvement with the PPWV has shown me they strive to teach and work hard to elevate their profession. They go out of their way to help you with any problem or question you may have. I can say that my success in photography has been achieved largely due to my involvement in professional photographers associations."

Warren E. Motts, M.Photog. Cr., Hon. M. Photog., CPP, A-ASP, Hon. A-ASP, Hon. M. Photog. Mexico, Hon. M. Photog. China, Past President, Ohio, PPOf A, American Society of Prof. Photog.

"It may be a smaller group in numbers but not in quality. The photographers in the association are working hard to stay abreast of current trends in photographic technique and to pass those trends on."

Dave Huntsman, M.Photog., Cr.
Past President,
Kentucky Professional
Photographers Association

"Over the years I have been to PPWV events as a print judge and speaker many times, having first attended as a young boy travelling with my father. One thing I always recognized was a strong sense of family and history. The folks in West Virginia continue to show pride in the past, dedication to the present and commitment to the future."

ABOUT PPWV...

Over 65 years ago a handful of energetic photographers got together at Jackson's Mill to discuss issues common to their business and share ideas.

Today, with more than 100 members, Professional Photographers of West Virginia continues to provide a vital forum for photographers to learn new techniques, see new products and network with fellow photographers.
